FAMOUS FACES

Toledo Museum of Art

FAMOUS FACES AT TMA

Celebrities can be found in Toledo every day. The Museum is home to famous faces from around the world and across time. They are not hard to find. Take a walk through the galleries and see who turns up. We've provided some clues to their identities below. Enjoy the search!

GUESS WHO?

1. He was a clever inventor who is seen today on the $100 bill and in the West Wing of the Museum.
Hint: Look in Gallery 28A

2. He is the center of one of the most influential religions in the world. His likeness is cast in bronze and covered with gold.
Hint: He sits in Gallery 30

3. This American war hero led a "hazardous" lifestyle. He was the commander of a fleet of ships that defeated the British in a battle on Lake Erie in 1813.
Hint: Look in Gallery 29

4. The 16th president of the United States, famous for the Gettysburg Address and the Emancipation Proclamation, can be found in the Museum talking with his war council.
Hint: He's on a cabinet in Gallery 29B

5. Known as the Sun King, this French ruler lived in a grand palace at Versailles, where the nobility was subject to his every whim.
Hint: He is on horseback in an octagonal gallery (Gallery 28)

6. Although he was small in stature, this French emperor was quite successful in his military endeavors and is one of the most famous generals ever.
Hint: He rides a white horse in Gallery 31

7. As the man credited with discovering the Americas, he was honored throughout the world—and even has some cities named after him.
Hint: Check the paintings in Gallery 31

8. Shakespeare wrote many famous tales with well-known characters. This one is a beautiful woman from Hamlet.
Hint: Her image hangs in Gallery 32

9. This famous couple made their creator very upset when they ate something they shouldn't have.
Hint: Look in the Great Gallery

10. This man delivered his Ninety-five Theses and helped start a new religious movement known as Protestantism.
Hint: Look for him at the far left in a group of people shown in a painting in Gallery 15

11. This Egyptian god took the form of a bird of prey, was closely associated with the Pharaohs, and can be found in the Museum's East Wing.
Hint: He's carved of stone and sits in the Classic Court

12. This ancient hero was the son of Zeus and defeated many mythical foes in his day.
Hint: This image is made of bronze and is in the Classic Court

13. She was considered by many to be the most beautiful goddess ever and can be found in the Museum near a very large soldier.
Hint: Visit the Classic Court

14. She is the largest woman in the world and was given to the United States by France.
Hint: Look carefully at the paintings in Gallery 8

Note: Some works of art may be off view during your visit. This removal is temporary. Be sure to look for them on your next trip to the Museum.

ANSWERS

1. Benjamin Franklin
Jean-Antoine Houdin
Benjamin Franklin
Tinted plaster, after 1778
1969.93

2. Buddha
Central Tibet
Buddha
Gilded bronze, about 1450
1989.4
(Can you find other representations of Buddha in this gallery?)

3. Oliver Hazard Perry
Gilbert Stuart and Jane Stuart
Commodore Oliver Hazard Perry
Oil on wood panel, 1818–28
1967.140

4. Abraham Lincoln
John Rogers
The Council of War
Painted plaster, after 1865
1953.163

5. Louis XIV, King of France
After Martin Desjardins
Equestrian Portrait of Louis XIV
Patinated and gilded bronze, early 1700s
1980.1330

6. Napoleon
Antoine-Jean Gros
Napoleon on the Battlefield of Eylau
Oil on canvas, 1807
1988.54

7. Christopher Columbus
Eugène Delacroix
The Return of Christopher Columbus
Oil on canvas, 1839
1938.80

8. Ophelia
Arthur Hughes
Ophelia
Oil on canvas, about 1865
1952.87

9. Adam and Eve
Jacob Jordaens
Adam and Eve
Oil on canvas, 1645–50
1987.201

10. Martin Luther
Lucas Cranach the Younger
Martin Luther and the Wittenberg Reformers
Oil on wood panel, about 1543
1926.55

11. Horus
Egyptian, probably Ptolemaic period
Horus
Basalt or dolerite, 332–30 B.C.
1972.53

12. Hercle (Hercules)
Etruscan
Hercle
Bronze, 4th century B.C.
1978.22
(Hercules is shown on a Greek vase too. Can you find him?)

13. Venus
Roman, probably from Asia Minor
Venus
Marble, about A.D. 161–169
1976.21
(Have you seen images of Venus in other galleries too?)

14. The Statue of Liberty
Robert Rauschenberg
Round Sum
Oil and silkscreen on canvas, 1964
1976.33

The Museum would like to thank Alan Pfaff, a senior at St. John's Jesuit High School, for creating this gallery hunt.